

Thank You to our Organizational Sponsors

December 30, 2013

We thank the following organizations that provided essential financial support for the BASIS during 2013. Thanks to their generous support, we were able to continue to provide the BASIS free of charge to thousands of interested readers worldwide.

We applaud the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling and bwin.party for promoting the free dissemination of science-based information regarding addiction in its many expressions. During 2013, we published 13 issues each of our four review journals; two Special Topics in Addiction and the Humanities; and two Op-Ed/Editorials, one of which prompted a lively debate about best practices in evaluating the impact of expanded gambling within Massachusetts.

We look forward to continuing the conversation during 2014 and beyond.
